RESPONDS TO REQUEST OF OLD SOLDIERS

MONTICELLO KY., Oct. 4, 1904. EDITOR SENECA JOURNAL.

DEAR SIR:—I have been requested by the old Soldiers of Pulaski county to define my views as to the pension policy of the Government as to them, through the medium of the Journal.

In deference to this desire, and for the purpose of complying with this wish, I will say that I was too young to be a soldier in the late Civil War, and know of the soldier, not from experience, but from history, which tells of his many heroic deeds; of his privations and sufferings for his country and his convictions. Every citizen of this country owes allegiance to the Government in return for the protection which the Government affords and guarantees to him of life, liberty and property, and when his country, by the proper constituted authority for that purpose, for cause to it justifying such a step, declares war, it is the duty of the citizen to promptly answer the call to arms, the motive that should actuate him in so high a duty should be, and if a true soldier is simply patriotism and love of country and without the slightest monetary or selfish thought. This must be true in order to avoid abusing the soldier and his calling, and entitle his action to that admiration and respect of all which his heroism, bravery and courage displayed in battle, his self sacrifice, privation, hardships in camp and duty well performed always begets in his fellow countrymen.

War is to be deprecated and no one deprecates it more than he who would make and use the true Soldier. There is no heritage ever left to a people that is treasured more highly, preserved and regarded more sacredly and which begets loftier and higher ideals and instills in the youth of the land the principle of patriotism and love of country, as deeds of chivalry, bravery and valor done by her soldiers. The true soldier asks nothing of his country but the right to serve her loyalty well. He is in the true sense of the word a hero. He offered and may be criticized life upon his country's altar and at her call he gave to its service the best of his vigorous manhood by exposure and hardships in the faithful performance of duty; he lost health and incurred disease; he sacrificed the pleasures of home and the ties of wife and loved one. Was he not in fact a giver? There may be a debt without the debt. There may be a debt of gratitude without a demand, there is such thing as a debt of gratitude. Equally as binding and as obligatory on the party owing it as a contract obligation, if not more so. Such a debt if owing by an individual, if in his power and he is able to do so, failed to answer it, he would stand disgraced and discredited. The party owing a debt of this character cannot from its very nature expect to be asked to pay. Those who have heard the payment of a debt of gratitude being demanded? But does the failing to demand payment destroy the debt or make it less obligatory upon the debtor to pay? No, but makes it more binding and the debtor under the more obligation to be the more active in the discharge of the debt. I recognize the fact that the Government of the United States owes to the soldiers a debt of gratitude which it should by proper pension legislation, by its Congress, the same power that declared war and which is empowered to make laws, seek to discharge in a fair and liberal way. It strikes me that the fairest way to meet this sacred obligation is to pass a service pension bill.

When it is considered that it has been about forty years since your services were rendered, and sacrifices made and to require you at this time to make proof of disability incurred in line of duty, with your comrades scattered and with a large number if not a majority blighted in that mystic land that separates the seen from the unseen, and who are awaiting the bugle call to Judgment, not to battle, could or would be termed just or generous. What age should be fixed in the act it strikes me, could be arrived at fairly to the soldiers upon an investigation by a committee appointed for that purpose whose aim should be to treat the soldiers with general respect and liberality.

Now, having given you my view up on this question at your request, I must say I had some hesitancy in doing so, for the reason that I am a candidate, and therefore subject myself to the criticism that what I have said was for the purpose of getting the soldier's vote. Now, I say to you that what I have said in answer to your request, should not and ought not to induce a single soldier to vote for me. Were any soldier to vote for me on account of the views herein expressed, he destroys the very basis upon which my views are founded, besides you are now citizens you have as high and important duty to perform to your country as when you were soldiers and it is important that it be performed as patriots and as men who have the interest of this country at heart. I hold that it is your duty irrespective of the pension question, (for as to that question each of the political parties express their willingness to treat the soldier fairly and liberally) to examine the question and candidates before you, of the parties seeking the support of the people for office and support of that party and candidate that you as lovers of your country and desiring its good, believe would rebound to the greatest good of the country. I am with great respect your friend and well wisher.

CHALLENGE AND THE ANSWER.

The New York Democrats having directly stated in their platform that "For the first time in the history, the Empire state has a governor whose personal integrity rests under widespread suspicion." Governor Odell very promptly came to the front—not being able to withstand the challenge—and asked what, if the charge was true, had the Democratic attorney general of the state been doing during his two-year term of office. It was an unfortunate challenge, though it is to be admitted the circumstances compelled it.

Silent Governor Odell would have admitted the truth of the great charge. Speaking, he has brought Attorney General Cunniff to the front with an array of facts and figures showing of official life in the past.

He offered and may be criticized life upon his country's altar and at her call he gave to its service the best of his vigorous manhood by exposure and hardships in the faithful performance of duty; he lost health and incurred disease; he sacrificed the pleasures of home and the ties of wife and loved one. Was he not in fact a giver? There may be a debt without the debt. There may be a debt of gratitude without a demand, there is such thing as a debt of gratitude. MINERAL WATER.

It has been Recently Found on the Farm of J. C. Morrison, Taylor County.

This well is on the Campbellville and Greensburg pike, five miles from the former place and seven from the latter. The well is 88 feet deep and the water is as cold as a person would want it. It is situated on Mr. J. C. Morrison's place, who is making preparations to take a few boarders.

The following gives a full explanation: Agricultural Experiment Station, State College of Kentucky.

Lexington, Ky., July 29, 1904.—Mineral water sent by J. C. Morrison, Campbellville, Taylor county, Ky., July 18, 1904. The sample was received July 21, 1904, in pint bottle. The water smelled strongly of hydrogen sulphide and there was a deposit of sulphur in the bottle.

ANALYSIS.

The water contains 329.9 grains of solid matter to the gallon, composed mainly of chlorides and sulphates of sodium, calcium and magnesium, some calcium carbonate and traces of iron, potassium and lithium compounds and a trace of borates. The water contained also a very considerable quantity of hydrogen sulphide. Is very good salubrious sulphur water.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

For Circuit Judge.

We are authorized to announce that H. I. H. THURMAN, of Washington county, is a candidate for Circuit Judge in the district comprising the counties of Green, Taylor, Martin and Washington, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

There are more calls for Hon. W. J. Bryan, than any other Democratic speaker in the entire country. Mr. Bryan never lost his prestige by the defeats of 1896 and 1900, but is to-day one of the ablest and truest American statesmen. Mr. Parker is not his ideal in many respects neither is the platform just to his liking, but where Mr. Parker is weak, Mr. Roosevelt is weaker, and where the platform is defective the Republican declaration is even more so. There are millions of voters who see as Mr. Bryan sees but will vote it straight because it is decidedly better than the opposite. True believers in bimetalism have not made a surrender but are fighting a battle on issues common to all who oppose centralizing all governmental functions to a Federal head. The principle of State rights still lives and taxation without representation is foreign to American liberty.

Roosevelt is only satisfied when he is doing something to humiliate the South. The last negro postmaster appointed for South Carolina is name Murray Let every man who believes in white supremacy vote the Democratic ticket.

The Republican party is the only organization in existence that has nerve enough to try to make the people believe that a high tax redounds to the general good. Since the Dingley law was enacted 238 trusts, covering nearly every article of commerce have been formed and not one of them with the purpose of aiding, the public. The formation of trusts have knocked out of employment thousands of laboring men and instead of reducing the price of the article controlled have advanced it. Tariff is the mother of trusts and the great common people the victims.

We hear nothing of the "full dinner-pail" in this campaign which carried McKinley through four years ago. The truth is that the pail is not so full now and soup houses have been established in several of the large cities. The protective tariff preys on one class to build up another.

Quite a number of Adair county citizens heard Hon. John Sharp Williams at Louisville. It was a great speech delivered by one of the ablest men of the nation.

If the people of this district want to be represented in Congress by an able man they will vote for Hon. Geo. E. Stone.

Geo. E. Stone is an able, clean man and as a representative in Congress would be a credit to the district.

When you go to the polls on election day stamp under the rooster and let your vote go Gallagher.

GRADYVILLE

John Love and P. V. Grissom, shoe men of Columbia, were here Thursday soliciting orders.

R. L. Caldwell and wife entertained quite a number of their friends last Friday.

Prof. G. B. Yates and R. L. Caldwell are talking in the St. Louis Fair, this week.

Gordon Montgomery, of Columbia, was here Friday looking after insurance.

Mrs. H. A. Walker and daughter, Columbia, spent several days of last week with relatives in our city.

J. J. Hunter returned from Louisville last Wednesday where he sold a carload of cattle at satisfactory prices.

Huston Wilmore spent last Sunday in Greensburg.

W. W. Wilmore is Louisville this week.

S. C. Neat, of Columbia, and Jo Lane, of Glasgow, were in our midst last Friday.

J. J. Hunter is building a large feed and tobacco barn, Uriah Bradshaw is the contractor.

G. E. Nell bought his mother's property in our town last week.

Mr. J. D. Walker and wife spent a day or so by the bedside of their father, W. L. Walker, at Nell last week.

H. Q. Montgomery, of Bowling, was in our midst last Friday and presented us with some nice apples.

J. F. Pendleton shipped a car load of fat cattle to the Louisville market Saturday.

Remember that Rev. J. P. Scruggs, assisted by Rev. Gains of Campbellsville, will begin a meeting here Monday night after the third Sunday in November.

Mr. Chas. Rodgers, who is drilling a well for C. M. Hindman, near here, has struck an ore that resembles gold very much. We think that it would be well enough for Mr. Hindman to have the metal analyzed. Mr. Rodgers thinks he has certainly struck a gold mine.

Smith & Nell sold in the Louisville market last week 24 cattle for $796.58; bought 10 hogs of J. B. Hurt, $100; 1 horse of C. S. Bell, $20; 5 mules in Cumberland county, $950.

There is great interest manifested in the revival meeting at Big creek church, conducted by Revs. W. B. Cave and Brown.

R. L. Davis, wife and son, of Portland, visited the family of R. L. Caldwell Tuesday night.

Mrs. H. C. Walker, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Turk, visited at Bliss one day last week.

We are glad to note that Mr. Jo Hunter, who has been confined to his room for several weeks, is improving.

Misses Nellie Mercer and Dollie Dohoney, of Milltown, attended the Tarter & White show Tuesday night.

Medames Hill & Robertson, the up-to-date milliners, keep a full stock and are having a good trade.

H. A. Walker passed through here Wednesday with a car load of mules en route for Bowling Green.

The well-known Tarter & White show exhibited here last Tuesday night to a large audience. So far as we know everybody was well pleased and was satisfied that they got the worth of their money.

BLISS

No trace of Jack Frost in this part so far.

A large acreage of wheat is being sown in this section.

Tarter & White, showmen, gave an exhibition, at Montgomery's school-house last Monday night.

Mrs. J. D. Flowers has been confined to her bed with rheumatism.

Mrs. Lola Lovett and daughter, Margaret, were visiting here a few days ago.

Miss Lizzie Pennington, of Metcalfe county, has been visiting her grandfather, "Uncle" John Pennington for a month.

Rev. A. L. Mell sold his fine buggy horse to Rev. Moore, of Rowena, for $85.

Wm. Francis and family, of down Butler's fork, spent Tuesday of last week here.

Revs. Polk Dillon and W. E. Thomas, of Tompkinsville, visited here Tuesday.

Rev. A. L. Mell and wife left Thursday for former's appointment at Greenville for the coming year. Rev. Mell is a popular and splendid divine, and we were truly sorry to see him and his wife leave this county. Here's wishing a God-speed and success in your noble calling, Bro. Mell, wherever you go.

Possum and sweet taters are getting mighty ripe nowadays.

The church near here, known as Hebron, which has been neglected for some time, was recently covered and some repairs were done on it. It is said a meeting is to begin there soon.

Geo. A. Atkins and wife, and M. L. Grissom and wife, arrived Tuesday noon of last week, from their honeymoon trip to St. Louis. A nice dinner was given at the residence of Mrs. Sue Grissom, in honor of them. A few relatives were present. The repeat consisted of everything that was fit for an epicure and it was tastefully prepared.

Mrs. W. M. Wilmore, son, Austin, daughter, Miss Mary, of Gradyville, spent Tuesday here at the wedding dinner.

P. V. Grissom and his mother, of Columbia, visited relatives here Tuesday.

Dr. W. H. Grissom and wife, of your city, were in our midst last week.

Rev. W. H. C. Sandridge has had an addition built on his house. It has improved its looks and increased the value of the property.

Clothing, Cloaks, Dress Goods, Shoes, Etc., Etc.

CLOTHING.

We have "STACKS" of Clothing in our Clothing Department. We think that we can please anybody in CLOTH, FIT and STYLE. There is no sense in buying so-called Tailor-made stuff from Chicago Sweat Shops, when we can sell you a "Criterion" Suit or Over Coat, better goods, better fit, and save you 8 or 10 dollars on the outfit. We invite you to inspect our Clothing Stock

CLOAKS.

We carried over no Cloaks from last season, hence our stock contains nothing but the newest styles. We have all the new cloths, handsomely designed in Tailor-made Long Tourist Coats, Dutch Coats, Norfolk Coats, 27 Inch Jackets, Wraps, Capes, Etc. It's the most immense stock of good things you ever saw outside of the City stores. Can fit any size, form or figure. Also big stock of FURS. Come and see them.

SHOES.

If you will take the trouble to inquire of the people of this community that wear nice Shoes, where they get them, you will find that three-fourths will say, from Russell, Murrell & Co. That sounds like "Hot air," doesn't it? Try it once and you will see it is true. We realize that not every customer gets a shoe that has comfort, style and wear in it they are not satisfied. Our lines of Custom-made Shoes embrace all these qualities. This season our stock is specially strong in Mens' and Ladies' Fine Shoes. Our Mens' Patent Coats and Kids, Vici Kids, Box Calfs, Cordovars and Kangaroos, made in latest cuts on new lasts, are beauties. Ladies who wear Fine Shoes know that our Krippendorf-Dittman line cannot be excelled for quality, style and fit. The styles are "Up to the minute" this Fall. Just as good as you can buy from any City Shoe Store. In addition we carry a large stock of cheap and medium priced Shoes and Boots. Can give you what you want.

SHOES.

Ladies' Dress Goods and Furnishings.

Our stock in this department is full and complete. All the latest effects in Dress Goods and Trimmings. This department is under the management of Mrs. Murrell and Miss White. They can assist you the goods you want, assist you in designing, and will take special pains to please you. Come and have them show you this stock.

House Furnishings.

If you contemplate buying anything for your house this season, we've got it for you. Folding Beds, Iron, Brass and Enamelled Beds, Sideboards, Hall Trees, Bookcases, Parlor Suits, all kinds Fancy Odd Chairs and Rockers, Dining room Chairs, Carpets, Rugs, Oil Cloths, Lace Curtains, Ready-made Sheets, Quilts, Comforts, Etc. We carry only a high grade of Furniture. We buy direct from Factories and can save you money. Come and look over this stock.

AN INSPECTION OF THESE DEPARTMENTS IS INVITED. RUSSELL, MURRELL & CO., COLUMBIA, KY.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Mr. J. N. Coffey is in Louisville this week.

Mr. M. Roy Yarbrough was in Campbellsville last Saturday.
Rev. W. C. Clemens is attending Presbytery at Danville.
Mr. S. T. Hughes left on a prospecting trip to Texas Tuesday.
Mr. E. T. Hood, of Percell, Ind. Ter., is visiting relatives and friends in this county.
Mrs. S. Grissom, of Bliss, visited her sister, Mrs. Lucy Fulk, last Friday and Saturday.
Dr. C. M. Russell and daughter, Regina, have returned from a visit to Wayne county.
Mr. R. K. Young, wife and son are visiting Mr. Young's parents in Cumberland county.
Mr. Geo. R. Miller arrived last Tuesday for a week's stay with his mother and other relatives.
Mr. Attos Morgan was in Columbia Friday and reported political conditions in his section all right.
Mr. J. C. Webb, of Webb's Cross Roads, was in town last Thursday and gave the News a pleasant call.
Mr. S. C. Murrell and family, of Iowa, are in this section on a two weeks visit to their parents and friends.
Mr. H. H. Heminger and wife, of Monticello, visited their daughter last week, who is a student in the Lindsey-Wilson.

LOCAL JOTTINGS.

Born to the wife of W. R. Williams, October 15, a son.
A telephone line has been completed from Danville to Ramee and is now in operation.
Mrs. Rosa Dixon, mother of Neal and Bill Dixon, died last Saturday night. She was about 89 years of age.
The increased amount of fertilizer sold in this town indicates that a large crop of wheat is now in the ground.
There will be an all day singing at Shiloh the 4th Sunday, conducted by Prof. Sam Stapp and R. O. Campbell. Bring your books.
I want to buy a good milk cow—will trade two young heifers.
Milltown, Ky.
Mr. G. B. Smith and family removed from Mrs. Lou Miller's property, last Sunday, to their new dwelling in the suburbs of Columbia, on the Stanford road.
A large per cent of people in this part of the State have quit using cabbage, not because of the deadly cabbage snake so much as the scarcity of the cabbage.
If you promised the News a load of wood don't wait till winter to bring it. We can store all the wood needed in our large cellar. Bring it before the roads get bad.
Mr. W. E. Bradshaw sold to Pemberton Bros., one of the worst kidding mules that ever left this county, for $155.00. This sale was overlooked in last week's issue.
The proposition to put in an electric light plant in meeting with favor and within a short while Columbia's midnight darkness will be dispelled by the blaze of electricity.
Mr. Wade Calhoun, of Eto, Russell county, exhibited in Jamestown, a sweet-potato that weighed a fraction over 9 pounds. It was the White Brazillian variety.
Ras Strange, of the firm of Beck & Strange, while handling a bunch of bananas, Saturday, was bitten on the middle finger by a tarantula. He immediately had the place cauterized and as the "spider" was very young no serious results are anticipated.
Parties owning unimproved property on square are paying tax and receiving nothing on their buildings while four or five good business houses could be rented at good prices if they would only build. Put up some good substantial business houses and see how quick they will be taken.

MARRIED.

Dr. T. A. Smith, son of Mr. Green B. Smith, of this place, was married Wednesday, the 5th inst., to Miss Rose Oates, of Wayne county, Rev. T. L. Hulse officiating. The bride is a native of Mrs. G. A. Smith, of this place, and is a young woman of many lovable traits of character. The groom is a dentist by profession, and is a young man of excellent standing. Soon after the ceremony the happy couple left for Cincinnati where Mr. Smith will spend the winter in school.
The First National Bank of Columbia was one year old last Saturday, and as a yearling it is one of the strongest in Southern Kentucky. Its President, Mr. J. O. Russell, and Cashier, Mr. E. H. Hughes, are men who are cautious business men and have given entire satisfaction in their respective positions, both to the stock-holders and the people who transact business with that institution. Up to date the deposits and loans far exceed the average Bank of equal age in country towns, and after paying all expenses a good interest is left for its owners. In justice to all parties we feel safe in saying that the prosperity of the above mentioned institution has not molested the old Bank of Columbia, that has been in business for many years and has stood the pressure of panics as well as enjoyed the great seasons of prosperity. The Bank of Columbia and the First National Bank are here for the benefit of our town and country and the very fact that the National has not hurt the business of the other Bank shows that new business has been secured, that the field of operation has been broadened. This should be encouraging to our town. This field is ample for both and the people and country just proud of them.

COMMISSIONER'S SALES.

ADAIR CIRCUIT COURT.
ELLEN M. HOLLADAY, & PERS. COM. SALE.
MAGGIE HOLLADAY, & PERS. COM. SALE.
By virtue of a Judgment rendered on the above action at the Sept. term 1904, I will on Monday, Nov. 7th, 1904, at the Court-house door in Columbia, Ky., sell at public auction, on a credit of six months, enough of the land owned by John Holladay, deceased, to raise the sum of $1,853.82 with interest and cost. I will first sell the 70 acre tract, then the 10 acre and then enough of the 350 acre tract to raise said sum. For more particular description reference is made to the judgment.

One of the prettiest scarf pins we have seen for a long while is the one Mr. M. Roy Yarbrough had made a few days ago, set with six white pearls in a circle and a beautiful red one in the center.
Parties indebted to Wm. F. Jeffries & Son, note or account are requested to settle same at once.
The residence of Mr. J. A. Young has received a new coat of paint.
JAMESTOWN.
Miss Nancy Willis and little Nell Willis are visiting Mrs. A. D. Patterson this week.
Miss Olive Snow is quite ill at the "Hotel De Patterson."
Dr. C. M. Russell and little daughter, Regina, of Columbia, visited friends here last week.
Mr. and Mrs. Penn Rowe were here last week.
Miss E. Pearl Raugh, who has been Chicago with her sister, Mrs. Ehotan, engaged in pursuit of her favorite theme, music, is at home again after a two years absence.
Miss Clara Snow, who is teaching at Lulu, was at home last Saturday.

The will of Mrs. Abigail Faulkner, lately deceased, was probated at the recent term of county court, bequeathing to her daughter, Mrs. L. A. Phelps, the home property in West Jamestown.
Circuit court convenes here next Monday. Rather a heavy docket to be disposed of.
Mr. J. H. Stone returned from a visit to the World's Fair last week.
Capt. John L. Phelps is still quite sick.
Jamestown is regretting the losing of Mr. W. B. Patterson and family, who will soon remove to Columbia, but we sincerely hope our loss will be their gain.
Miss Nona Dockery and Mr. Walter Morris were married by Eld. A. H. Raugh, at his residence, on Wednesday morning, October 26th, 1904. Only the immediate family of the officiating minister witnessed the ceremony and it was not publicly known until a few days later, when the happy pair left for Albany, where they will remain for awhile. Mrs. Morris is the daughter of Mr. V. Dockery, of this city, and will be greatly missed by her many friends, among whom she was a general favorite. Mr. Morris is of the "Pauly Jail Building Co., and an excellent young man. They carry with them the best wishes of the entire town and community.

RESOLVE TO NOT KISS.

Recently have a dozen pretty Georgia girls discussed kissing from various standpoints—hygienically, financially, etc., and decided that it is a silly and unsanitary practice. Accordingly they organized as the Anti-Kissing Club and adopted a constitution, which provides among other things:

"I pledge myself never to kiss one except father, mother, brother, sister, husband and children. I pledge myself furthermore to never kiss my betrothed until I become his wife.

If I fail to keep this pledge I will pay a fine of $25 a day and the club to erase my name from the roll.

On the marriage of any member of this club in good standing each member shall pay $5 to the treasurer, who shall present the amount as a bride gift to the bride.

The amount paid in by those who fail to keep the pledge shall be held by the treasurer as a fund to be divided among those who prefer spinsterhood.

All members of the club must attend the marriage of members, and all hymeneal ceremonies will be arranged by an appointed committee.

Any members who apply for divorce shall pay to the treasurer $50 and have her name removed from the roll.

On the death of any member in good standing each member shall pay to the treasurer $5, to be used in erecting a shaft to the deceased, which shall be a marble pillar three by four, surmounted by a figure of a woman in Greek costume three feet high, with the first finger of the right hand touching closed lips. The only inscription shall be: "Here rests a modest, sensible and faithful member of the A. K. C."

Fortunately for the Georgia boys the A. K. C.'s failed to insert a clause prohibiting hugging. But when a member is being hugged she will murmur the warning: "Please remember I am an A. K. C."

GENERAL NEWS

Three men were killed in a railroad wreck near Birmingham, N. D.

Middleboro was visited by a $50,000 fire last Saturday night.

A woman in New York shot and killed a man who was attempting to force his undecorated affection upon her.

At Mayville Frank Coleman shot and seriously injured Walter Lewis.

"The river looks good to me tonight" were the last words spoken by a young widow who committed suicide in the All-gheny river.

The dead body of a young woman was found in a well near Alpine, Ala. It is presumed that she fell into the well while walking in her sleep.

Fire in the Bates oil field, Texas, has caused a loss of $50,000, distributed among eleven companies and operators. The fire was caused by sparks falling in a tank of oil.

The mystery of the three attempts to wreck the battleship Connecticut, now in process of completion at the New York navy yard, remains unsolved. A rigid investigation has been started.

The disappearance of editor Dearbon, of the Guthrie Graphic, is accounted for in a letter from the publishers of the Free Press, at Stuart, Ark., in which it is stated that a man who gave his name as Dearbon and answered the description of the missing editor appeared there in financial straits and departed for Texarkana after he was aided by newspaper men.

A special from Cartersville, Ga., says six men have been buried alive in a mine near that place. The dead are R. P. Morgan, owner of the mine and five other employees.

Col. J. M. Marshall, U. S. Depot Quartermaster at Jeffersonville, received from Washington an order for 10,000 shirts for soldiers. The work will be given out as soon as the material is received, which will be soon, as the order is immediate.

Never cut the candle surrounding the nail; press back daily and the nail will stay in place, showing the pretty white moons.

GEO. O. BARNES.

Heart County News: The world-famed evangelist, Geo. O. Barnes, has just closed a series of seven sermons at this place. He arrived here one week sooner than was expected, owing to the fact that he failed to find a place to preach in Glasgow. Owing to the radical views he proclaims, his congregations were not large, yet he had a right good hearing. Some were delighted with many things he taught; a few were offended. The world will have to confess that he has a spotless character; and although they may never publicly serve his God they will be bound always to love him. And if his God is not the right one, all who have loved him will be guilty of idolatry in loving him; for to serve any god is to love him; and to love the wrong god is to be guilty of idolatry toward the right one. His God is the sweetest character of Deity that it is possible for man to imagine; then if his God is not the right one, everybody will agree that he should be, for surely our Deity should have at least as high a character as poor fallen man can think of.

LITTLE BITS OF NEWS.

England makes $20,000,000 a year out of its postoffices.

The hair of the head grows faster in summer than in winter.

There are forests of leafless trees in some parts of Australia.

HEALTH AND BEAUTY.

Good health requires plenty of fresh air in the sleeping apartments. For a night only one should sleep several times a day with a little diluted alcohol or witch hazel.

Diluted alcohol applied daily will prove beneficial in excessive perspiration.

The juice of an orange in a cup of hot water, taken before breakfast is beneficial as food for indigestion and constipation.

For a severe headache a towel wrung out of hot water and applied to the back of the neck will often give instant relief.

The constant use on the teeth of powdered charcoal or pumice stone is injurious, as such powders break the enamel and the teeth with them quickly decay.

GOOD FARM FOR SALE.

I will sell my farm for a fair price. It is in a good community and in good state of cultivation. Contains 80 acres, nearly all in grass. It is a splendid home for some one and is only 5 miles from Columbia, near Russell's creek. W. F. JEFFRIES, Columbia, Ky.

A fat cow for sale. W. M. Bryant, Eats, Ky.

FOR SALE.

My property on Greenburg street, one-half mile from court-house, containing 23 acres. New 7 room house newly painted, gutted and screened, good well and good buildings. A desirable home and goes at a bargain. F. T. SMITH, Columbia, Ky.

A report from O'Brien's Landing, Mo., says that Charles Geitrell, a clerk in a commissary, while en route from St. Louis, rushed from his room in his night clothes, got possession of a gun and killed four men and a negro woman. It is stated that Geitrell escaped to the woods and a posse is in pursuit.

The October WOMAN'S HOME COMPANION makes the boast that it is a "well thought magazine." Besides articles of special interest to women on Fashions, Home Entertainments, Cookery, etc., there is an unusual number of timely features. Lee Fairchild writes on "The Funny Side of a Political Campaign"; there are four unusual unpublished portraits of the Presidential candidates; David Belasco in his "Advice to the Girl with Dramatic Ambitions" gives some advice on the "Peace Making Error of the Sea." The great serial, "The King of Diamonds," begins in this number, and there are excellent short stories by J. L. Harbort, Sara Amherland Gilbert, Wilton. Published by The Crowell Publishing Company, Springfield, Ohio; one dollar a year; ten cents a copy.

It is a fact that we have been quite successful in raising campaign funds. Our campaign fund at present is much larger than it was in 1900, and by election day we will have all the money in Kentucky that we need."

It has been apparent for some days that the Republicans had no intention of sending any money out of the State. It is also plain that they intend to make a hard fight for the four congressional districts named. The bulk of the money, however, will be spent in the Fifth district.

GOOD FARM FOR SALE.

I will sell my farm for a fair price. It is in a good community and in good state of cultivation. Contains 80 acres, nearly all in grass. It is a splendid home for some one and is only 5 miles from Columbia, near Russell's creek. W. F. JEFFRIES, Columbia, Ky.

A fat cow for sale. W. M. Bryant, Eats, Ky.

FOR SALE.

My property on Greenburg street, one-half mile from court-house, containing 23 acres. New 7 room house newly painted, gutted and screened, good well and good buildings. A desirable home and goes at a bargain. F. T. SMITH, Columbia, Ky.

A report from O'Brien's Landing, Mo., says that Charles Geitrell, a clerk in a commissary, while en route from St. Louis, rushed from his room in his night clothes, got possession of a gun and killed four men and a negro woman. It is stated that Geitrell escaped to the woods and a posse is in pursuit.

The October WOMAN'S HOME COMPANION makes the boast that it is a "well thought magazine." Besides articles of special interest to women on Fashions, Home Entertainments, Cookery, etc., there is an unusual number of timely features. Lee Fairchild writes on "The Funny Side of a Political Campaign"; there are four unusual unpublished portraits of the Presidential candidates; David Belasco in his "Advice to the Girl with Dramatic Ambitions" gives some advice on the "Peace Making Error of the Sea." The great serial, "The King of Diamonds," begins in this number, and there are excellent short stories by J. L. Harbort, Sara Amherland Gilbert, Wilton. Published by The Crowell Publishing Company, Springfield, Ohio; one dollar a year; ten cents a copy.

It is a fact that we have been quite successful in raising campaign funds. Our campaign fund at present is much larger than it was in 1900, and by election day we will have all the money in Kentucky that we need."
